Dear Parents/Guardians of Year 11 and Year 13 Students

Key Updates Regarding the Arden TAG Process

Since we launched the Arden TAG website on Monday, there are a few key updates that we would like to bring to your attention. Three videos have been added to the website that relate specifically to the Arden TAG process. These videos can be found in the 'important information' page on the Arden TAG website. The links are also listed below:

Video 1

This pre-recorded assembly was recorded by Mr Warwood and shown to all Year 11 and 13 students on 23rd March. It has also been shared with students via Edulink. In the video Mr Warwood explains how pleased we are with the response of all students to the replacement of the summer exams. He also explains the importance of maintaining exam conditions in the assessments taking place, so that everyone has the same opportunity to do well.

Video 2

This video has been recorded for parents/guardians and provides a detailed overview of the Arden TAG process. Although aimed at parents/guardians, it is recommended that you watch this video with your child.

Video 3

Please watch this video after watching video 2. This is a video that parents/guardians and students should both watch and outlines the criteria and steps that would need to be taken by students who feel they may have any assessment evidence that has not been taken into account by their teacher.

Video 2 refers to a Google form which you can use to submit your questions regarding the Arden TAG process:

<https://forms.gle/tqPBDhJZJ34pxjXY7>

The form requires you to submit questions under broad topic areas. We will then use your questions to produce a webinar style video in which we will clarify any key points and answer your questions. Please be aware we cannot answer specific questions around what grade your child may get.

We will close the Google form at 9am on Monday 29th March. This will allow us sufficient time to read your questions and to put together the webinar style video to send out to you before the Easter break.

Yours sincerely
